

Recommendation for Lifesaving or Meritorious Action Award

Upon consideration of the evidence submitted from all sources, as set forth in this recommendation form, we respectfully recommend that the National Court of Honor grant the award checked below. Note: If the action being considered is deserving of merit but does not qualify for a national award, do not submit this form. The Local Council Certificate of Merit, No. 606760, is suitable for this purpose.

Guidelines

1. Nomination forms will not be considered after a lapse of 36 months of the incident.
2. This application form must be used.
3. No case should be forwarded to the council without a signed statement from the nominee and eyewitness.
4. Lifesaving or meritorious actions performed as part of the line of duty of a trained lifesaver-i.e., doctor, nurse, lifeguard, first responder-will not be considered.
5. Separate nomination forms are required if more than one member is being recognized for recognition.
6. Provide the full name of applicant to be honored, exactly as it should appear on the certificate if the award is granted.
7. Provide as much information as necessary using the space provided on this form. No additional documents should be added.
8. Complete the release/assignment form on the following page to have your story considered for publication in the Scouts in Action section (for youth) of Scout Life magazine or the Scouters in Action section (for adults) in Scouting magazine.
9. Council Meritorious Action Awards Committee. Each Council shall establish a Council Meritorious Action Awards Committee for the purpose of considering applications for award for the National Certificate of Merit or Medal of Merit for individuals registered with the Boy Scouts of America and residing within the council. Such committee shall consist of at least three and not more than five members to consider such applications and prepare recommendation for such applications by the Council Executive Board. The Council Executive Board shall consider and have authority for the final approval and/or denial of applications for National Certificate of Merit or Medal of Merit. No committee member shall consider an application for a family member.
10. Upgrading of Recommendation. If the local Council Meritorious Action Awards Committee and Council Executive Board are of the opinion that an application for the National Certificate of Merit or Medal of Merit should be upgraded to an application for the Heroism, Honor Medal or the Honor Medal with Crossed Palms, it may refer the application, with a written letter of recommendation, to the National Court of Honor at awards@scouting.org for consideration. Upon consideration, the National Court of Honor may grant the recommended upgrade of the application or return it to the Council Executive Board for consideration of a National Certificate of Merit or Medal of Merit.
11. Reporting of the Medal of Merit and National Certificate of Merit Awards. After final approval by the local council, the council must report the recipient within thirty (30) days using the Meritorious Action Award Reporting Tool.
12. Availability of Certificates and Medals. Commencing immediately, Councils may order National Certificate of Merit, Medal of Merit certificate, Medal of Merit square knot, and Medal of Merit medal from BSA Supply. Only approved certificates or medals shall be used for the said awards.

SCOUTS IN ACTION / SCOUTERS IN ACTION RELEASE/ASSIGNMENT

If the nominee ends up receiving a BSA life-saving award, we would like to consider telling their story in either Scout Life (Scouts in Action) or Scouting magazine (Scouters in Action). By signing this form, you are giving us permission to consider this story for publication, should the nominee eventually be awarded a life-saving award. The subjects in our magazines are selected from a lengthy list of award winners. There is no guarantee that the story will ever actually be used in our magazines. Please note that signing this form does not guarantee that the nominee will be awarded a life-saving award. Please check the “opt out” box below if you do not wish for us to consider this story for use in our magazines.

I, _____ [print name], in consideration of acceptance and review of an application for Recommendation for Lifesaving or Meritorious Action Award, do consent and authorize the Boy Scouts of America to use and reproduce my name, image and story and to circulate them for any and all purposes, including publication of every description.

I hereby give up any right that I may have to inspect or approve the finished story or advertising copy or printed matter, as it may be edited. I also hereby release the Boy Scouts of America, and all persons acting under its permission or authority, from any liability by virtue of any blurring, distortion, alteration or use in any derivative or composite form, whether intentional or otherwise, that may occur or be produced regarding the use of my name, image and story.

I furthermore assign all copyrights to the story* to the Boy Scouts of America, for any and all copyright terms and all extensions and renewal terms of copyright whether now known or hereafter created throughout the world, and all new works created from my story, free from payment of any royalty or compensation whatsoever.

I state that I have read the above authorization, release and agreement prior to its execution, and that I am fully aware of the contents thereof.

RULES AND REGULATIONS
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Article X, Section 5, Clause 1
Lifesaving Awards

Clause 1. Lifesaving Awards. Recognition may be given to a youth member or adult leader of the Boy Scouts of America where the evidence presented to the National Court of Honor, in accordance with prescribed regulations, shows that he or she saved or attempted to save life under circumstances which indicate heroism and risk to self. The court will give consideration to resourcefulness and to demonstrated skill in rescue methods. In no case shall recognition be given where it appears that the risk involved was merely in the performance of duty or the meeting of an obligation because of responsibility to supervise and give leadership to the persons whose lives were saved. The awards are:

- a) Honor Medal with Crossed Palms. The Honor Medal with Crossed Palms may be awarded in exceptional cases to a youth member or adult leader who has demonstrated unusual heroism and extraordinary skill or resourcefulness in saving or attempting to save life at extreme risk to self.
- b) Honor Medal. The Honor Medal may be awarded to a youth member or adult leader who has demonstrated unusual heroism and skill in saving or attempting to save life at considerable risk to self.
- c) Heroism Award. The Heroism Award may be awarded to a youth member or adult leader who has demonstrated heroism and skill in saving or attempting to save life at more than minimal personal risk to self.

Article X, Section 5, Clauses 2 and 3
Meritorious Action Awards

Clause 2. Meritorious Action Awards. Recognition may be given to a youth member or adult leader where the evidence presented to the National Court of Honor, in accordance with prescribed regulations, shows that a significant or outstanding act of service, of an exceptional character, was performed. The action taken need not involve attempts of rescue or risk to self but must put into practice Scouting skills and/or ideals. Recognition shall not be given where it appears that the action involved was merely in the performance of duty or the meeting of an obligation. The awards are:

- a) Medal of Merit. The Medal of Merit may be awarded to a youth member or adult leader who has performed an act of service of a rare or exceptional character that reflects an uncommon degree of concern for the well-being of others.
- b) National Certificate of Merit. The National Certificate of Merit may be awarded to a youth member or adult leader who has performed a significant act of service that is deserving of special national recognition.

Clause 3. All applications should be submitted to the National Court of Honor through a local council upon duly prescribed forms, and it shall be within the discretion of the National Court of Honor to determine which type of recognition, if any, shall be given. Recipients of these awards must be registered members of the Boy Scouts of America at the time the action was performed. Awards are made in the name of the Boy Scouts of America.
